
Gregory G. Koval

Acting Deputy Assistant Secretary of the Navy (Financial Operations), Office of the Assistant Secretary of the Navy (Financial Management and Comptroller)

Mr. Gregory Koval is the Acting Deputy Assistant Secretary of the Navy (Financial Operations), Office of the Assistant Secretary of the Navy (Financial Management and Comptroller). He is responsible for the day-to-day operations of the organization, including its regional offices, and supporting the Assistant Secretary of the Navy (Financial Management and Comptroller), in accomplishing her full responsibilities for Department of the Navy (DON) accounting and financial operations. In addition, Mr. Koval is responsible for general oversight of the DON's Financial Improvement and Audit Remediation (FIAR) program and serves as the DON's Chief Accounting Officer.

Mr. Koval was formerly the Deputy Director of the Marine Corps Fiscal Division, supporting the Deputy Commandant, Programs and Resources, Headquarters Marine Corps. He was responsible for the day-to-day operations of the Risk and Compliance Branch (to include Audit Response and Remediation), Manager's Internal Control Program/OMB A-123, Finance Branch, Accounting Branch, and Marine Corps Non-Appropriated Funds Audit Service. He developed the Marine Corps audit remediation strategy and worked successfully across business lines and process owners to improve financial statement audit results during his tenure.

Mr. Koval joined the Civil Service from IBM Global Business Services, where he was a Senior Managing Consultant supporting the Marine Corps and Navy FIAR programs for over a decade as a contractor. He provided business consulting services in all aspects of accounting, audit, and internal controls, to include information technology.

Prior to his contract work with the Department of the Navy, Mr. Koval managed internal audit contractor teams at a Civilian Agency, helping components maintain unmodified audit opinions through the implementation of internal controls, the use of data analytics to quickly identify and resolve deficiencies, and a robust testing and assessment program to meet OMB A-123 testing objectives.

Mr. Koval began his career as an Operational Risk Consultant for Arthur Andersen LLP, supporting internal control risk assessments, financial statement audits, and SAS-70 audits for private sector entities in the manufacturing, banking, and hospitality industries.

Mr. Koval is a Certified Information Systems Auditor (CISA) and graduated with Honors from Muhlenberg College with a B.A. in Accounting and a B.A. in Economics.
